Home of the FIRST ever salad bar in the U.S.A. 1950...

THREE GENERATIONS OF FINE DINING

History of owners

1931 George Armstrong-As a Gas Station 1935-1939 George Armstrong-Army's Restaurant

1940-1949 Marian Nall- Sky Club 1949-1961 Louie and Evelyn Schnittger

1961-1965 John Freund (Patrick & Eric's Grandfather) 1965-69 Terry Freund (Father) Dennis Freund (Uncle) Doug Freund (Uncle)

1969-1999 Terry Freund & Dennis Freund 1999-2007 Terry Freund

2007-Present Eric & Patrick Freund (Brothers)

In 1935, A New Business Ventured Its Way In To The Small Town Of Plover, WI. Originally Called Army's And Later Changed To Sky Club, Thank You Bob Gleason Formerly Of Wisconsin Rapids For Explaining The History Of Sky Club's Name. Sky Club Was Named After The Close Location To Felix Gauthier's McDill Airport. Now Its Current Location Is Airline Drive. Sky Club Boasting Its Lunch Specials Consisting Of Homemade Sandwiches And Oven - Baked Chicken, It Attracted Many Hungry Tourists Who Also Had The Opportunity To Spend The Evening At The Business Camping Facilities Offered At No Expense. A Gas And Oil Service Station Was Included For Those Who May Have Been On Their Way To A More Distant Location. Marion Nall Started This Unique Combination Of Services Set Among Stately Oaks Offering A Quiet Country Setting Close The Airport. The Original Building Not Only Housed A Bar And A Restaurant, But Also Served As A Home To The Operators. It Didn't Take Long For This Wayside To Become An Identifiable Spot For Travelers Heading Through Plover And Stevens Point. Near The End Of The War, The Tourist Season Seemed To Grow Along With The Restaurant, Whose Service Was Becoming More Extensive; Hence The Term "Supper Club". Post War Booming The 40's And 50's Came Rather Quickly. It Was In Those Years Changes Were Made To The Wayside Restaurant Which Helped Identify The Present Sky Club. In 1950 An Innovative Self-Service, All — You — Can — Eat Salad Bar, The First Of Its Kind Was Introduced And Installed By Russell Swanson Who To This Day Is Known As The "FATHER OF THE SALAD BAR". It Became The Identifying Benchmark Of The Sky Club. Around This Time, The Slogan, "Heavenly Food Served By Angels" Was Introduced, And Is Said To Have Been Started By Tom Leech President Of The Local Whiting Paper Mill & Tommie's Turnpike Was Named After Him, He Was A Part — Time Owner/Customer In The Early 1940's. The Restaurant's History Of Owners, In Order Is: Marion Nall, Louie Jacobs, John Rocco, Louie And Evelyn Schnittger And Finally, In 1961, John Freund. Freund, From Neenah Purchased The Restaurant And Operated It Until 1965, But Died Suddenly. It Was Then His Sons, Doug And Terrol Who Purchased The Restaurant And Took Over Where Their Father Left Off. In May Of 1966, Another Son Dennis, Fresh Out Of The Air Force, Joined His Brothers In The Business. Age Was Their Only Asset, But In No Time, The Business Was On Its Way To Success. In 1969, Doug Decided To Pursue Other Interests, And Left The Sky Club. In Late November, The Restaurant Dealt With A Severe Setback From A Fire Forcing The Business To Close Until June, 1970. Dennis And Terry Responded To The Challenge And Rebuilt The Restaurant Again. With The Help Of Loyal Customers, Dedicated Employees, And A Few Years' Time, An Additional Dining Room Was Added In 1979. In Order To Do This, The Owner's Home Located Next To The Business Was Moved. Additions Were Added In 1981 And In 1994. With Tremendous Pride, The Freund's Are Able To Look Back At The History Of Their Business. Dennis Freund Retired In The Summer Of 1999 And Terry Freund Retired To His Other Restaurant "Headwaters" In Boulder Junction Wisconsin In The Summer Of 2007, Passing The Tradition Down To His Two Son's Patrick And Eric.

The Freund's Continue The Tradition Of The Sky Club And Want To Thank Our Past And Present Patrons And Employees When In Boulder Junction Stop And Visit Our Father Terry At Headwaters Restaurant & Tavern On The Manitowish River
